Shenghan:

Your WHMIS.2015 FULL training certificate is above. Please retain this certificate for your records.

Please give a copy of this certificate to your supervisor or departmental safety officer if required by your department.

If you continue to be in a role that requires WHMIS training, please ensure you complete the Annual Refresher training each year.

You may be receiving this as a duplicate if you have completed this training previously and recently re-enrolled in the online topic.
